TIONS ASSOCIATION FILM FESTIVAL AT VARIOUS LOCATIONS IN PALO ALTO

TASH (Australia)

Tash's first memory is of family violence. It was her father pushing her mother against the kitchen stove. She was two or three years old. This is Tash's story, illustrated and told by her. Co-directed and co-produced by Natasha Anderson and Amelia Phillips. 1:00pm.

BROKEN PLACES (US)

Broken Places explores why some children are severely damaged by early adversity while others are able to thrive. By revisiting some of the abused and neglected children profiled decades ago, we're able to dramatically illustrate how early trauma shaped their lives as adults. Broken Places interweaves these longitudinal narratives with commentary from nationally renowned experts to help viewers understand the devastating impact of childhood adversity as well as the inspiring characteristics of resilience. Directed and co-produced by Roger Weisberg. 1:20pm. Filmmakers Present.

16 BARS (US)

With the US locking up more of its citizens per capita than any other nation on the planet, the music of 16 Bars offers a rare glimpse at the human stories—and songs—that are locked away in our nation’s jails and prisons. In the jail’s makeshift recording studio, four men collaborate on an album with a Grammy-winning recording artist, Todd “Speech” Thomas. As the creative process unfurls, each of these men must unearth painful memories, which hold a key to a new chapter in their lives. Directed by Samuel Bathrick. 2:20pm. Filmmakers Present.

Panel discussion to follow “The Role of Prisons in Our Justice System”

WHY ARE WE CREATIVE: THE CENTIPEDE’S DILEMMA (Germany)

For over thirty years, director Hermann Vaske filmed the world’s most intriguing artists and thinkers posing the question: “Why are you creative?” Vaske’s subjects include: David Bowie, Björk, Wim Wenders, Yoko Ono, David Lynch, Yohji Yamamoto, Angelina Jolie, Quentin Tarantino, Bono, Nick Cave, Stephen Hawkins, the Dalai Lama, Peter Ustinov, Marina Abramovic and many others. Directed and co-produced by Hermann Vaske. 5:00pm. Filmmakers Present.

LIFTED (Trinidad and Tobago/Venezuela)

Set against frank conversation about diversity in Trinidad and Tobago, Lifted follows a day in the lives of a refugee family as they journey to a Moko Jumbie (stilt-walking) class. Directed and produced by Miquel Galofre. 7:00pm.

THE VALLEY (France/Italy)

High in the French Alps, on the border between Italy and France, migrants fleeing war, political persecution and poverty risk their lives in the hope of a better life crossing dangerous mountain routes. Witnessing the migrants’ suffering and dismay, the local population of the Roya Valley has taken action to provide them with shelter, food and legal counseling. Nonetheless, in France, the transporting or hosting of undocumented migrants is a criminal offense, and the population has soon found itself on the wrong side of the law. Directed by Nuno Escudeiro. 7:40pm. Filmmakers Present.

UNSETTLED: SEEKING REFUGE IN AMERICA (Angola/Congo/Syria/Turkey/US)

Unsettled: Seeking Refuge in America follows the stories of LGBT refugees and asylum seekers from Africa and the Middle East as they flee persecution in their countries of origin to seek better and safer lives in the US. Directed and co-produced by Tom Shepard. 9:10pm. Filmmakers Present.
